

The Church in Long Beach – Truth Pursuit
The Law of REVIVAL – Chapter One – Study Questions

The State of Fullness in Every Stage Coming to an End

1. What are the two possible aspects of the beginning of our pursuing the Lord in different stages?

_____ reveals that at the _____ of every _____, a _____ of the Lord will always feel _____.

Needing a New Beginning

2. What is the fundamental experience necessary to have a genuine new beginning?

After obtaining a sense of satisfaction in the process of pursuing and following the Lord, it is normal to feel _____ and _____ and to feel that we have lost the Lord's presence. This feeling of emptiness and dissatisfaction is a sign, telling us that it is time for a _____. This feeling of dissatisfaction can be likened to the green traffic signal that tells us to advance. A red light tells us to stop, but when the light turns green, we can continue on our journey. The inner feeling of dissatisfaction is the _____ in our spiritual journey. Dissatisfaction includes feelings of darkness, emptiness, oldness, weakness, and losing heart. It also includes the sense of being unable to touch the Lord's presence, of losing our taste for prayer, of not receiving light from the Bible, of being dry when giving messages, and of losing the anointing. These feelings are not _____. They are a sign, telling us that it is time for a _____.

Formal service and religious worship involve observing rules and following regulations. Our service may have been _____ and _____ seven or eight years ago, but it will be _____ and _____ if we are still serving in the same way. For example, the Old Testament service was living at Moses' time, but after many years it lost its vitality and became dead. In order to be delivered from _____ service and _____ worship, the church must have a new beginning. This does not mean that we need a new method or a new way. Our ground is right. The way that we carry out the service is also right, but it lacks _____. I hope that the serving ones can sense the oldness. The serving ones must have a new beginning so that they can influence the saints and thus cause the churches to have a _____.

The Experience in Every Stage Being Christ and His Death and Resurrection

3. Since the experience in every stage is Christ and His death and resurrection, why do we need to go on from stage to stage?

Our future experiences do not differ from our initial experiences; our experiences will only become _____, _____, _____, and _____.

Being Renewed For Genuine Service

4. What is the way to be saved from a habitual work that merely maintains the status quo?

Even if we do not have other problems, oldness is a problem. Only by having a new _____ with a new _____ and new dealings will our work be _____, and the church will experience another stage of the Lord's fresh presence.
