

The Church in Long Beach – Truth Pursuit
The Law of Revival – Chapter Three – Study Questions & Fill Ins

The Law of Revival

REVIVAL BEING THE METABOLISM OF OUR SPIRITUAL LIFE

- 1. How can we say that the revivals in our spiritual life have the same function as the metabolism of an animal or plant?

In our spiritual experience there is a beginning, a course, and an ending, after which we experience another beginning with another course and another ending. This _____ repeats itself, and each repetition takes us _____. The beginning, course, and ending are a _____. This is also a law of revival.

MORE REVIVALS RESULTING IN FASTER GROWTH

- 2. What is the issue of having, or not having, many spiritual cycles?

Genuine _____ depends on the _____ of the _____. This renewing in _____ is a _____.

KNOWING OURSELVES IN ORDER TO EXPERIENCE CHRIST AND HAVE A REVIVAL

- 3. Why is it worthwhile to learn more concerning our weaknesses?

The Holy Spirit often raises up a _____ situation in our _____ to _____ with His _____ so that we can _____ our _____ or our _____. What we see becomes a kind of _____ that enables us to see a _____ of Christ that can _____ with our _____. When we _____ and _____ this characteristic, we will _____ be _____.

APPLYING THE LAW OF REVIVAL

- 4. Based upon the paragraph below, use your own words to explain the law of revival.

Therefore, we should never stay focused on our weaknesses. The _____ that we discover should only enable us to see an _____ of Christ for us to _____. When we gaze upon Christ, who is newly revealed to us in a particular _____, we will be enlivened within and _____. After we experience Christ in this way, we will not care about our weaknesses. Instead, we will look directly at our _____, the Christ who is able to supply us richly in all things and solve all our problems. Then we will be revived and experience another _____ of revival. When we see a weakness, we should immediately look at Christ. Then we will experience another revival. This is the _____. If we see this law clearly, whenever we are down and discover a weakness, we can receive Christ according to our _____ and enter into a new revival.